View From the Bridge

by Bret Clark,
Commodore

A hoy everyone!
I hope that you and your family were not too impacted by the rain that pounded the Central Coast at the beginning of January. Our clubhouse made it through just fine, although the front door still is a little swollen and won't latch/close on its own. This means that Members need to ensure that it is latched when they enter or leave the club. We fared much better than Santa Barbara Yacht Club which saw major beach erosion and damage to their clubhouse and parking area.

Looking Backwards, Looking Forward

I would like to thank Junior Staff Commodore, Ken San Filippo, for organizing the Old Board/New Board dinner. This event honors the accomplishments of last year's board and welcomes in the new one. Ken was assisted by Marty and Lettie Fuller who were our bartenders, Terry Whitney and Terry San Filippo who were in charge of decorations, and Debbie Collins-Johnson who made a great meal. Looking back on 2022, one can see how much progress was made in beginning the transition to more regular, pre-COVID activities.

Your 2023 Board's first board meeting was on January 8. One of our first tasks was to develop our initiatives for the year. They are to:

- Continue to support Avila Beach community needs
- Offer Advanced ASA Sailing classes to the Membership

- Negotiate a long-term Clubhouse lease
- Engage in capital improvement projects for the Clubhouse
- Analyze fixed club costs and propose solutions
- Review, revise, and delete (as necessary) all Board documents

I am excited to work with the new board and our membership to complete these initiatives. If you have additional items that you would like to see your board work on, please contact me.

Clubhouse Projects

I have asked Rear Commodore, Joe Montgomery, to form committees to make recommendations for a Galley Remodel, Bar Remodel, and Interior Furniture Assessment/Replacement. Please be sure to contact Joe if you are interested in serving on these committees. I will provide more information once the committees make their recommendations.

New Membership Process

Please be sure to check our Junior Staff Commodore, Ken San Filippo's article in this month's Foghorn regarding our New Membership Process. Changes were made and approved by last year's board in an effort to make the process fair and so that the most qualified applicants are selected. At present, we do not know the precise number of openings because we still have not received dues payments for over ten Flag Members.

Volunteer Duties

Vice Commodore, Bob Hurd, is monitoring Time to Sign Up to ensure that we are staffed for events. As you know, there is a new way to participate in Club volunteerism this year, by serving as a Food Host/Clean-up volunteer. This idea was presented to me last year by Staff Commodore, Karen Hiatt. I know that it is early in the year, but if the January 20 Friday Social is any indication of things to come, I think it will be deemed a success! Margo Frasier and Nancy Alvarado put out an assortment of heavy hors d'oeuvres which included chili, hot dogs, salad, and homemade cookies in addition to the standard bar snacks. All who attended left with large smiles and full bellies.

Vice Views

by Bob Hurd,
Vice Commodore

A hoy!
As I am cycling through as Vice Commodore a second time, I thought it would be fun to use my February 2010 Vice Views article for 2023 with I imagined the same old problems we still have today, including late dues payments and members who have not done their service.

But when I read the February 2010 Foghorn, I was Sail Fleet Captain at that time. I guess I don't remember things very well but reading the Foghorns for that year I did not become Vice Commodore until Opening Day in April. Maybe later this year I will use a Vice Views from 2010 for fun.

January 2023 is in the record books now and at this pace the year will be over before I get everything done, I wanted to.

Thankfully, our Commodore Bret Clark has set clear goals for this year and has been getting the commodores together monthly to set the monthly meeting agenda and maintain communication.

For me the immediate focus is on insuring we have ODs for every event, making sure all the openings in Time To Sign Up (TTSU) are filled, planning for Opening Day, convening the Finance Committee, and helping the Commodore.

When you are hosting bar, preparing a meal, or cleaning up, please be sure to thank your OD, who like you is a volunteer.

The TTSU page on the Club's website is invaluable for making sure we have every event staffed. At the time I wrote this there are openings for a second bar host and clean-up on 2/18/23 Valentine's Day Dinner, clean-up on 2/23/23 and 2/24/23. Please look at TTSU for any openings you can help fill.

Opening Day this year is going to be on Saturday, April 15, and approaching quickly. There are a lot of details to make this important event a success and I will be looking for some help.

The Finance Committee will meet in February, and I will report on the meeting in the March Foghorn.

Bret would like to think I have his back and I will do my best. So far, I have only messed up once, when I failed to extricate him from being held hostage by a long-winded talker.

One last thing. I found a burgee in my inbox in the office from the Eastern Yacht Club in Marblehead, Massachusetts. I would like to give credit to whomever gave it to the Club, confirm that they gave them one of our burgees, and get the story on their trip to share with you.

If you know anything about this burgee, please contact me.

See you at the club or on the water.

—Bob

Power Report

by Pat Mullen,
Power Captain

A hoy!
2023 certainly started with a bang with all the rain and stormy weather! Chase boat shipped some water

(rainwater) into her bow on top of the cover, but no damage occurred thanks to quick work by Jill Nunno to bail it out. I will be working with Jeff Blauer to better “crown” the cover to shed water better before any future storms. I will also be reaching out to some of our past Chase Boat skippers to follow up on scheduling skippers for this year's races. As before, if any members have an interest in learning how to use our club's Chase Boat and helping with skipper or crew duties, please let me know. Thanks, and cheers to a great year on the water.

Warm, sunny sailing...and fairly close – San Diego!

The stunning skyline and beauty from our anchorage in Glorietta Bay was breath taking. We were at anchor after a sunny afternoon sail on San Diego Bay with a gorgeous view of the Hotel Del Coronado. As the sun set, the lights of the hotel began to illuminate the skyline with a magical reflection across the glass like water. After some of our group returned from a shore side excursion in the dinghy, we would enjoy a memorable pasta dinner with a bottle of Joe Montgomery's special petit sirah. It was hard to believe it was December 28, 2022.

I have been wanting to check out sailing in San Diego for a few years now, to find a place close enough to our club where you didn't have to fly across the country or out of the state yet still be able to sail in warm, sunny weather, year-round, with interesting places to go, anchor, or tie-up at a marina. We decided to try a family sailing trip this year to do just that. We were fortunate to have 5 days and 4 nights on a beautiful Bali 4.3 catamaran “Gigspace” rented from West Coast Multi Hulls, on San Diego Bay. Even with the coming storms, we had 2 sunny and two cloudy days, with temperatures from the low 70's to low 60's. Not bad for December, and a half day drive to get there.

Our first day out, December 26, we went out of the bay, up the coast through lobster traps and dodging kelp beds along Point Loma and into Mission Bay where we anchored for the night in Mariner's Cove. It was a great spot, but you do hear the planes taking off from Lindberg Field in the mornings. The second day we headed out through the breakwater with a high surf warning but fortunately the Mission Bay breakwater was safe and uneventful. Fog rolled in for part of the trip back to San Diego Bay which added to our crewing and skippering experience. After a 20-mile trip that day, past the back bay Navy yards with the most interesting ships under repair, we tested our channel, tide and navigation chops to enter and tie-up at Loew's Coronado Bay Resort and Marina. Our marina stay allowed us full use of the resort and spa's amenities. We took full advantage of their restaurant, bar, hot tubs, steam room and showers. The next day we enjoyed some mid-day sailing on the jib as our main sheet was showing worrying signs of wear. That night was our lovely anchorage in Glorietta Bay across from the Hotel Del Coronado. On our last day, back to the dock after fueling up, we rendered aid to a jet skier adrift in the increasingly cold wind, with a stalled engine, shivering without a wetsuit, until he could be rescued by the rental company. After pumping the tanks and tying up, we enjoyed a final night with some San Diego friends who joined us on the boat for an evening barbecue, drinks and good conversation.

It was a terrific week, and we would highly recommend San Diego for a warm, calm, fun place to sail with lots of amenities.

Rear Commodore engaged the four-wheel drive, we made it. We were glad that we didn't miss the event. Saturday nights party was for the Board of Directors in appreciation for all of there work accomplished for 2022. It was nice to see everyone in such a good mood. The food was great, I had grilled Salmon and a slice of chocolate cake, and plenty of wine. Speeches were made by out going officers and new officers. The clubhouse faired much better than me during the storms. A couple of minor leaks and a swollen and sticky front door that is a little obstinate on closing all the way. So, if you're leaving the club, please make sure and give it a gentle push. Kudos to all who have participated. Hoping you survived during the numerous atmospheric rivers that hit us all. Also, thinking of all the boat owners who were courageous enough to leave their boats on the mooring balls, in the bay. In the next few weeks, we will be getting some estimates regarding galley improvements. As I mentioned in last months scuttlbutt, we are looking for committees who would like to participate in design. Give it a thought. My Ford tractor is still stuck in the sink hole... I think I have to wait till spring time to shovel it out.

Smooth sailing,

A hoy!
January started off with a big bang. I was riding on my 1947 Ford tractor, two weeks ago, mowing tall grass and suddenly I fell into a large sink-hole. Hanging on to the steering wheel, I sunk down about 18 inches. I was quite surprised by this event for I did not know these holes existed where I live. That following Monday, trees blew over and we lost a roof during the high winds and intense rain. January 14th the club held a very nice dinner for all members on the Board, Molly and I were not sure if we could get out. Our main road was covered with 3 feet of water. We tried another way, with mud licking at the bottom of the truck doors, I

New Board/Old Board Dinner

On Saturday January 14, 2023, Jr. Staff Commodore Ken San Filippo and Commodore Bret Clark hosted at the club a New Board Old Board Appreciation Dinner. Jr. Staff Commodore Ken San Filippo made opening remarks thanking the board for their officer service time, club commitment and dedication necessary to make 2022 a successful year post pandemic.

Flag Officers who were board members for 2022 and newly elected 2023 Officers along with their spouses attended the appreciation dinner. The old board were provided gifts and were thanked for their board service. The 2023 Board as part of their officer transition were provided their officer pins by Commodore Bret Clark.

To officiate pinning the commodore with his 3-stars pin, Michelle Clark the Commodore's spouse was asked to pin his stars, afterwards with the Jr. Staff Commodore San Filippo welcoming Bret Clark as the 2023 San Luis Yacht Club Commodore. Bret thanked the officers and spoke on his vision for the 2023 Yachting season.

The dinner was catered by Debbie Collins and crew, with table and flower decorations done by Terry Whitney and Terry Farris San Filippo. A special thank you to our bar hosts Marty and Lettie Fuller who kept our glasses full, Mary Matakovich who picked up the flowers and Michael Dobrzensky our club photographer who took pictures of the event. All enjoyed the evening despite the massive storm that had hit the central coast.
