4. Where can I get a Membership Application form and a Membership Sponsorship form?

Membership Application forms and Sponsorship forms will be available to those applicants (and at least one sponsor) who attend one of two orientations meetings scheduled during January & February of 2019. Extra copies of the forms are available from the SLYC Membership Committee Chair at jrstaffcommodore@slyc.org Application forms will be not accepted from applicants who have not attended one of the scheduled Orientation Meetings

5. When are orientation meetings scheduled?

Two orientation meetings are scheduled during January & February. You may select either date to attend

- Tuesday, January 22nd, 6-7 PM
- Saturday, February 2nd, 11 AM

6. Who is required to attend an orientation meeting?

All 'applicants' and at least one of their sponsors must attend one of the scheduled orientation meetings.

7. What happens after I submit my application?

The membership committee will perform an initial review of each application to verify:

- Orientation meeting attendance
- Each is accompanied by two sponsorship forms signed by current flag or honorary members
- Appropriately postmarked on or before February 12th 2019

Applications not meeting any of the above requirements will be not be considered. The applicant will be so notified.

The membership committee will determine suitability for an interview

If your application is selected for an interview you will be notified and scheduled for the interview on February 25th at 6 PM or March 4th at 6 PM.

These are the only opportunities for an interview.

8. When will I be contacted/notified?

Applicants will be notified of their status as it becomes known, e.g., selected for interview, not selected for interview. It is anticipated that the review of applications and subsequent interviews will be completed on March 5th and recommendations will be presented to the Board of Directors at the march 7th Board meeting

9. If I still have questions, who can I contact for more information?

You may contact the Membership Chairman at JRSTAFFCOMMODORE@SLYC.ORG
